

31 July 1964

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

STAT

STAT

Mr. Robert Lovett called me on 31 July concerning [redacted] who is interested in a position in Government. He worked with Mr. Lovett during World War I and was in intelligence work prior to that. He is now the head of [redacted] has indicated to Mr. Lovett that he is now at the point where he "can relax" and would be interested in making a contribution to government service, especially in intelligence work. Mr. Lovett indicated that he may be useful to us in some capacity.

Marshall S. Carter
Lientenant General, USA
Deputy Director

ILLEGIB

